Our tiles combine strength beauty, and timeless style, creating elegant spaces both indoors and around your pool.

About US

The world has enough remakes. Every tile we craft is an original.

Founded in 2018, Loam Art—the flagship brand of Mosaico People Pvt. Ltd.—is redefining handmade tiles in India. We specialize in exclusive 3D handcrafted tiles, where each piece is an artistic collaboration between skilled artisans and visionary designers.

At Loam Art, design meets craftsmanship. Each tile embodies texture, depth, and individuality, making it a perfect choice for architects and interior designers seeking to create timeless, statement spaces. From walls and our tiles transform every surface into a canvas of artistry and innovation.

VISION

At Loam Art, our vision is to lead the handmade tile industry through innovation, quality, and artistry. We aim to be the most trusted global brand, creating timeless handcrafted tiles that blend design and durability. We strive to empower craftsman, ensure sustainable practices, and deliver exceptional value across every wall and space we touch.

MISSION

Our mission is simple: no artisan should starve to create a masterpiece.

Loam Art's mission is to craft and deliver premium handmade tiles that blend artistry, quality, and aesthetics. We aim to delight our customers with elegant, eco-friendly creations while supporting our craftsman with safe, fair, and fulfilling work. Each handcrafted tile reflects our passion for design, individuality, and the beauty of imperfection.

WHAT MAKES LOAM ART A TRUSTED

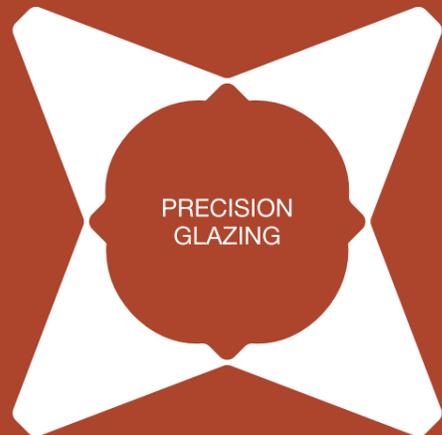

Loam Art, brand is the capability to understand the requirements of clients and offer them the best tiles. The company is determined towards delivering excellence to customers with style and quality.

The quality of the product is never compromised by our team. Our Minneapolis production facility is more like an artist's workshop than a factory. Various categories of tiles are produced by us to meet the specific requirements of our customers.

General Characteristics

- Material: Usually natural clay, China clay, and quartz (sometimes white clay for specific glazes), for the base and color layers.
- Production Process: Manually moulded, hand-pressed, glazed by hand, and fired in a pottery kiln (double-fired).
- Appearance: Characterized by inherent variations in size, shape, color, and texture, with irregular edges and slight imperfections, which is part of their unique character.

Usage:

Handmade Tiles are widely used for decorating. Generally recommended for walls and light-traffic residential floors, corridors up to 3 feet, Pillars, entrance walls, cineplexes, restaurants, and temples. They are also an ideal choice for enhancing bar counters, kitchen walls, bedrooms, halls, office spaces, banquet halls, dining areas, flooring, driveways, and outdoor spaces. These tiles help preserve color and prevent surface damage, making them both beautiful and durable. Perfect for small rooms or bathrooms where light shades are preferred, they add a creative and elegant touch to any corner of your space.
